

GUIDELINES & REQUIREMENTS

- The guidelines and requirements apply to all campers, staff, and visitors during camp week, and they are provided for the safety and well-being of each individual in attendance at Chapel Hill Bible Camp.
- Campers are subject to direction and correction by any staff member. The camp director may send home any camper who is guilty of persistent disobedience or violation of camp rules.
- No one (campers, staff, visitors) is to leave camp for any reason without the permission of the camp director. For insurance purposes, ALL staff, campers, visitors must sign-in and out with the camp director during the week. The sheet will be located in the lodge.
- Christian behavior is expected at all times.
- All campers and staff are expected to participate and/or attend all the camp activities.
- Improper/bad language, malicious pranks and/or hazing, vandalism, alcohol/drugs/tobacco/vaping products, weapons (including air-soft), fireworks, lighters, or matches are forbidden and will not be tolerated. Any damages will be charged to the responsible parties and/or parents.
- Dress Code: Modest dress is always expected!
 - Clothing NOT ALLOWED will include: any clothing that is tight fitting, too small, low cut (mid-drift must not show), spaghetti straps, revealing cutoff shirts (Note: Sleeveless shirts may be worn, but must cover the shoulders.), tank tops, clothing promoting alcohol, drugs, or profanity, etc.
 - Skirts and shorts must come to measure no more than 2 inches from the knee. Undergarments must not be showing outside of your clothes.

Staff reserve the right to ask any camper to change any clothing that does not abide by these rules.

A simple guideline: If it's questionable... Don't wear it. Find something else!

- Shoes and socks will be required for all physical activities. Sandals, Crocs, etc. will not be allowed to be worn during these activities. Campers are also expected to wear either shoes or sandals during the entire week of camp. No camper will be allowed to go barefoot at any time.
- PHONES WILL NOT BE USED AT CAMP. Any phone brought with a camper will be turned in upon arrival and locked up till departure
- No girls are allowed in or around the boys' cabins and vice versa. No exceptions!
- Cabins are to be cleaned daily. Cabin cleanliness guidelines will be posted in each cabin.
- No overnight visitors without permission from the camp director. (Based on space availability.)
